

WARREN PUBLIC LIBRARY GIVING CAMPAIGN

Dear Friend,

Thanks to supporters like you, the Warren Public Library continues to serve our community despite past funding cuts. Our community has responded, and now our library has been recognized nationally by being included in Libraries We Love, a massive, full-color coffee table volume published by Berkshire Publishing that lists the Warren Public Library and only two others in Pennsylvania (including Pittsburgh's Carnegie Library) as being "cherished centers of their communities" and displaying the "full range of the diversity, potential, style, history and contributions of the libraries in the United States."

We need your help to let our library continue to give local residents the service and the resources that they expect and that they deserve from the Warren Public Library.

The fundraising campaigns of the past three years have substantially helped the library's finances. Our patrons' gifts allowed the library to purchase over 3,500 books, videos, DVDs, and other library materials and equipment.

Your library continues to need your help. We again face the future short of funds.

As a larger library, Warren Public Library holds more materials and serves more residents in a more professional way than the libraries in many of our surrounding counties. It is one of the premier services in our region and a blessing to our community, and it delivers its services at no charge to patrons.

The Warren Public library serves local residents like you and your family with books, magazines, public programs, films, audio and videotapes, DVDs, and Internet access. Key to learning, entertainment, and knowledge, your library has served generations of Warren County: lending materials, answering questions, helping, and serving.

Today, Warren Public Library provides you and your neighbors more than ever before. Now, it needs your help.

For this reason, the Warren Public Library's Board of Directors and the Warren Library Friends have launched a campaign to fund our community library. Please join us. Your tax-deductible gift can help ensure that the services our library provides to area citizens will continue. It also gives you membership in both the Warren Library Association and the Warren Library Friends.

If you donated last year, we ask you to repeat your performance and consider increasing your gift. If you haven't donated before, please make a gift. Help us continue to offer information, entertainment, and knowledge to the Warren area. Please use the enclosed envelope to send your much-appreciated gift.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

John R. Wagner
President, Warren Library Association

Diane Groszek
President, Warren Library Friends
