The library's circulation has increased by almost 25% in the last five years.

Government financial support has dropped about 28%, or about one-third of the library's annual budget.

Dear Friend,

Each year the Warren Library has asked friends like you for financial help, and each year, Warren residents have responded generously. We sincerely thank you.

We need your gifts and we need them now more than ever.

The Warren Library is more than just about books – it is the heart of our community and a cherished space for people of all ages.

Each dollar you give has an impact – providing books and e-books, DVDs and CDs, programming and instruction, story times, movie and game nights, public computers, state of the art research and genealogy services, and more.

Please be generous. Help us to meet our goal for this fund drive of $45,000. Use the form below to make your tax deductible gift to the Warren Public Library, or make your gift online by credit card at www.warrenlibrary.org. Any donation amount will be accepted and appreciated.
